

New Locations - Sanco Thermo King

As of the beginning of May, 2024, Sanco Thermo King has recently taken on almost 60 employees across five locations! Welcome to the team, Thermo King Quad Cities!

The Dietrich family purchased the Thermo King Quad Cities locations from the Santarsiero family in 1989. Since then, the locations have been owned by father Dwight and sons John and Eric. The Quad Cities team is a group of passionate employees who have built up a great and respectable customer following. We are proud and excited to add them to the Sanco team!

Along with offering Thermo King products, the Quad Cities group has built an incredible reputation for their trailer repairs and unbeatable customer service. This team prides themselves on quality and timely repairs, and their results show in the Thermo King rankings! The Quad Cities employees provide the best service possible, and the loyalty they have created from their customer base has been recognized by the Sanco team.

Now, Eric and John are retiring and have passed the torch back off to the Santarsiero family!

Thermo King Quad Cities' five locations are now part of Sanco Thermo King. Those locations are:
